The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that defendant, Astat Halim, is hereby placed on Probation on the single-count Information for five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02. She shall also comply with General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05, while any sums remain.
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
4. The defendant shall perform 400 hours of community service which must be approved by the Court. The community service shall not be performed in connection with any person or entity with whom or which defendant had any previous contact.
5. The defendant shall not have any direct or indirect contact, personally or through any other person, orally or in writing, with any A., T., or S.C. or with any of their family members. If for some reason such contact could be necessary or appropriate, that contact should be made through counsel and through the Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

The drug testing condition mandated by the statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $137,669.00* pursuant to the plea agreement.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable for the restitution amounts with any amounts ordered to the same victims in USA v. Hendra Anwar, (Docket No. CR 13-895).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05 unless full payment of the fine and restitution is paid in full in ten days.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $50,000, pursuant to 5E1.2(c)(3). The fine shall be paid within ten days of the entering of this order.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
